DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-9 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With regards to independent claim 1, the prior art does not disclose nor teach the combination of a "voltage inducing means disposed at one lateral surface of said timing belt to induce a voltage in response to the magnetic force generated from said magnetic force generating means" and "voltage detecting means for detecting the voltage induced by said voltage inducing means";

With regards to independent claim 5, the prior art does not disclose nor teach the combination of "at least one conductor disposed on a lateral surface of said timing belt and configured to induce a voltage in response to a magnetic field generated by said at least one conductor moving past said magnetic field generator" and "a voltage detector coupled to said at least one conductor and configured to detect a voltage induced in said conductor by said magnetic field generator".

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
